CORDIALLY INVITE YOU TO THE
CONTEMPORARY PHILOSOPHY SEMINAR

“MICHAEL FRIEDMAN’S EPISTEMIC PROBLEM”

Presented by Boris Grozdanoff, Ph.D.

Philosophy of Science Dept. at IPR, BAS

Recently Michael Friedman from Stanford University has suggested a model of the scientific knowledge that proved to be one of the major candidates for a rationalistic account on science. I examine briefly the model, suggest a problem for it and propose a possible solution that would eventually seal the account against standard empiricist criticism.

2ND OF MARCH
